SeqAfrica Webinar Series 2025

Webinar 1: Results of the DTU GPT, 2020-2022

30 September 2025, 13:00 - 14:30 CET
This session will cover the results of the DTU Genomic Proficiency Tests from 2020-2022. Niamh Lacy-Roberts and Joana Mourão from the team at DTU will highlight laboratory results from African and European partners.

https://dtudk.zoom.us/j/66908008515?pwd=6GZlVRai9TjKfMpQmQZJhnnJe0HGqJ.1

Webinar 2: Uploading your AMR WGS Data to Public Repositories

14 October 2025, 13:00 - 15:00 CET
The interactive workshop will be led by Marco van Zwetselaar, who will cover the best approaches to making your data publicly available in order to enhance scientific collaboration, support global surveillance, inform public health policies and responses, and comply with Fleming Fund requirements.

https://dtudk.zoom.us/j/66531519039?pwd=oGL0WSqigO6IbKaUNSNgUNNaSAsHpO.1

Webinar 3: Using your AMR WGS Data to Promote IPC and Antibiotic Stewardship

21 October 2025, 13:00- 14:30 CET
In this webinar we will discuss strategies to communicate AMR WGS data more effectively to your healthcare counterparts. Dr. Beverly Egyir from the Noguchi Memorial Institute for Medical Research will present on the Institute's experience working with a strong AMR surveillance network of hospitals in Ghana.

https://dtudk.zoom.us/j/65006181722?pwd=kJNzr51ItWBlUtEi2PuuzYoqh3bT0k.1

Webinar 4: Understanding Your Sequencing Data

7 October 2025, 13:00 - 15:00 CET
This interactive workshop will focus on understanding the key elements of your sequencing data in order to take public health or policy action. There will be time to apply strategies learned in the session to your own data.

https://dtudk.zoom.us/j/65486675376?pwd=vCKHbtQ1nNHS5abPQDCNsam9MbnQ0N.1

Contact chrgi@dtu.dk for more information.